

100 years from now

I will be 110 years old. I will be a scientist inventing new technology and robot. I will bring comic book character to life, especially Pokémon. I will be living inside a volcano. We will all have Pokémon as pet. There will be four lands, fire, water, air, and rock & steel. There will be wars and battles between the four lands. By their Pokémon.

The fire land will have fire Pokémon like charmander, chameleon, and chimpia and more.

The water land will have water Pokémon like blast throd, mudkip and kabutops.

The air land will have air types Pokémon like pidgey, dragonite, and scyter.

In the final land rock and steel there will be rock and steel Pokémon like golem, sleex, and onix.

There will be no day only night and noooooooo nightmares. There will be no school. The communities will be smart, nice, and catch Pokémon. The transportation will be Pokémon because some sidekick Pokémon can teleport us. People will use fuel like electricity, gasoline, and gas.
